Foreword

As the fading embers of twilight deepen into a more intense beauty and serenity, the gentle solace of Night enfolds the earth. Light clouds in a velvet sky unravel and the stars among them are like single pearls. The wind moves dreamlike in the tranquil darkness and the wind whispers the peace of God.

To the centurion Night are whispered all the hopes and dreams of our restless generation. Looking to the past with nothing more than fond memories, we the Seniors of nineteen-hundred and sixty-five, now seek our positions as the citizens of tomorrow, the leaders of society and of a nation, the guardians of international understanding and the promoters of world peace. Here at Bethel Hill we have been partially prepared to meet the ever-growing demands of a rapidly changing world. We now prepare to leave in order to answer the world's challenges and to mold our futures as we confront each obstacle with faith and determination.

Dedication

To express our appreciation for your sincere friendship with all students, your devotion to duty both within the classroom and without, your outstanding teaching ability, and your many contributions to the well-rounded development of your students; we, the senior class of Bethel Hill dedicate this, the 1965 HILLTOPPER, to you Miss Annie Laura Dixon.

Beautiful was the night. Behind the black wall of the forest,
Tipping its summit with silver, arose the moon. On the river
Fell here and there through the branches a tremulous gleam of the moonlight,
Like the sweet thoughts of love on a darkened and devious spirit.

--Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Mr. W. C. Hopkins, Principal

Mrs. Sue Jackson, Secretary

Dear Seniors,

As your twelve years of school draw to a close, there are so many thoughts and memories that each of us cherish. Of course they are too numerous to mention them all, but I do want to congratulate you upon your success and to commend you for the very fine work you have done, the good citizenship you have exemplified and the help you have given in maintaining Bethel Hill School high in scholastic ratings. The good times we have had in the pursuit of knowledge and skills will always be remembered.

As you leave your Alma Mater, may I extend sincere wishes for success, happiness, and a long life of service to your fellow man. May you ever strive to follow the high ideals that we, as teachers and principal, have tried to instill into each of your hearts and minds during these years. It is with mixed emotions of joy and sorrow that I bid each of you farewell. May God continue to richly bless each of you in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Homecoming Queen

Miss Esther Sue Pool

Senior Representatives

To highlight the football season this year the Beta Club sponsored memorable Homecoming activities. The zenith of the evening was the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Miss Esther Pool.

Following the half-time activities, the queen with her escort, Archie Carver, the Maid of Honor with her escort, Jack Lowery and the other attendants and their escorts assembled in the gymnasium to complete the evening's entertainment.

The nervousness created by the whole event was finally over, and Miss Esther Pool, escorted by Archie Carver was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1964.

The crowning of the 1964 Valentine Queen, Miss Esther Pool, was performed by the 1963 Valentine Queen, Mrs. Linda Duncan.

The 1964 Valentine Queen was Miss Esther Pool. She was escorted by Archie Carver. Miss Becky Rogers (left) and Miss Katie Lee Melton (right) tied for Maid of Honor.

Out of several talents presented in her honor, the Valentine Queen chose the Sophomore class as having the best talent.

Junior-Senior Invaded Japan—Land of Exquisite Beauty

In a most enchanting fashion the juniors were responsible for bringing together the East and the West. After a delightful meal which included Fruit of the Good Earth, Mt. Fuji Mist, Contonese tea, and other Japanese delicacies, everyone proceeded to the gymnasium. The guests danced in the unique Japanese garden which had been prepared by the proud juniors; or, they gazed dreamily at the swaying Japanese lanterns and wished that the moment could last forever. But the stroke of midnight forced us all to re-enter America and a final "Sayonara" to the seniors echoed through the exotic Japanese garden.

The waitresses and waiters are Sandra Day, Eady Gray Humphries, Bonnie Gillis, Marjorie Pool, Mary Sue Jones, Joan Long, Frankie Morris, Tommy Collie, Joseph Gentry, Malcolm Clack, Ronnie Adcock, and Clem Lowery.

We all had a magnificent time at the banquet and then retired to the setting of Oriental Gardens for socializing and dancing.

Everyone enjoyed the music of Cozy's Combo as we danced the night away in the atmosphere of Oriental Gardens.

Mr. Charles Recktenwald is arduously dedicated in his attempts to train our boys and girls as teams and to build up school spirit. While training our Hilltopper squads, he encourages each individual to take pride in himself. He attributes the well roundedness of a person to physical fitness. Coach Recktenwald feels that the team is the important thing rather than statistics. He finds coaching very enjoyable and likes nothing more than working with young people.
